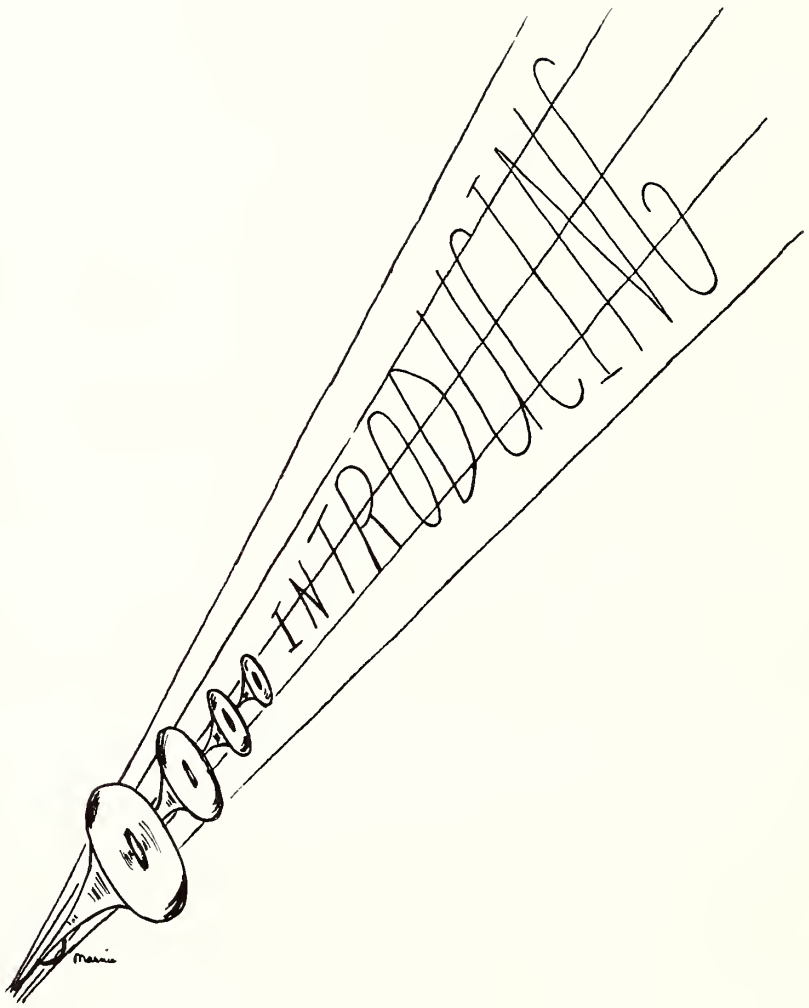
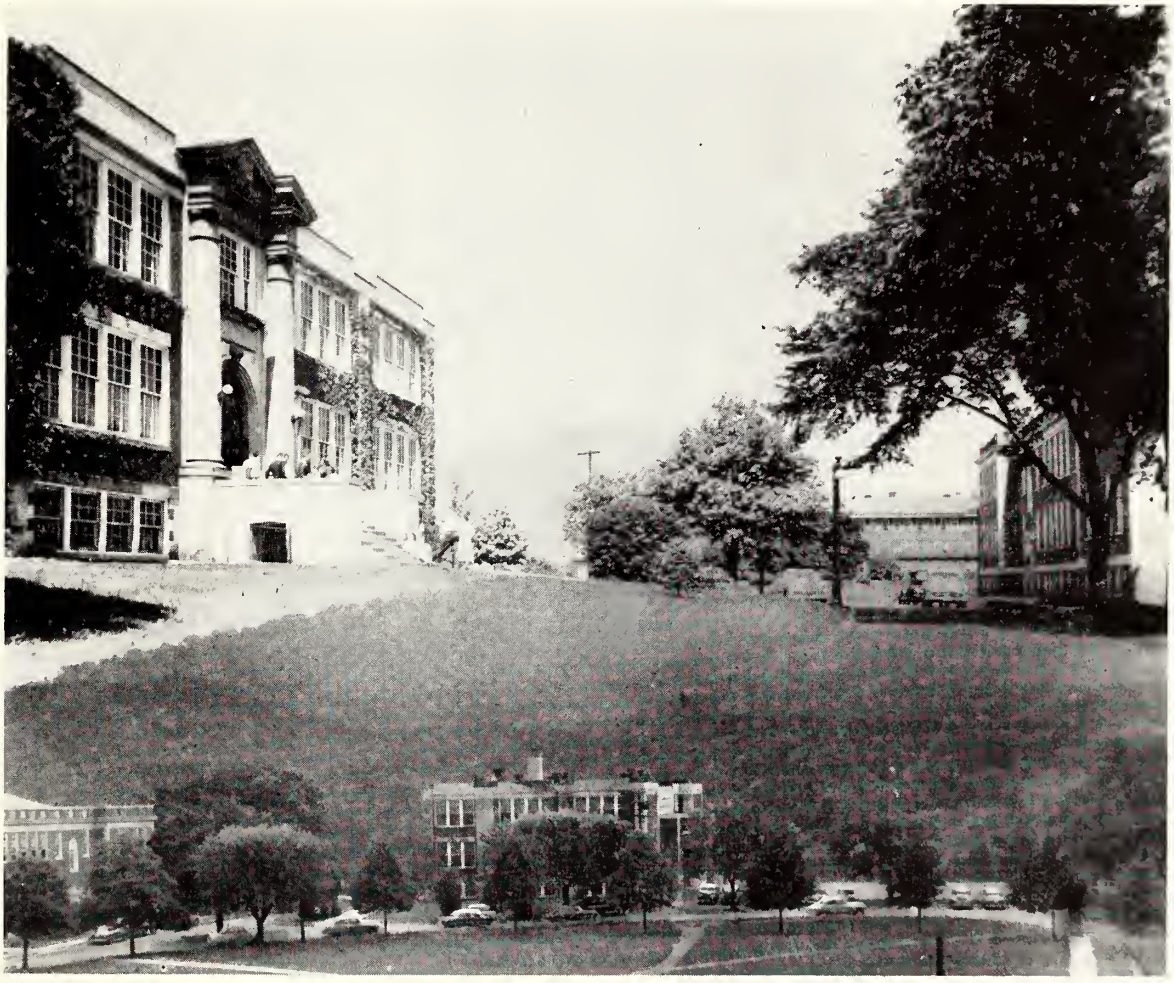
The 1958



Potomac State College

Catamount



of West Virginia University

Dr. Ernest E. Church

President

We hope that your confidence in the selection of Potomac State has been justified by your experiences on the campus. May the pages of the 1958 Catamount always be the source of pleasant memories.

ERNEST ELLIOTT CHURCH

Mr. Kirkland S. McKee

Dean and Registrar

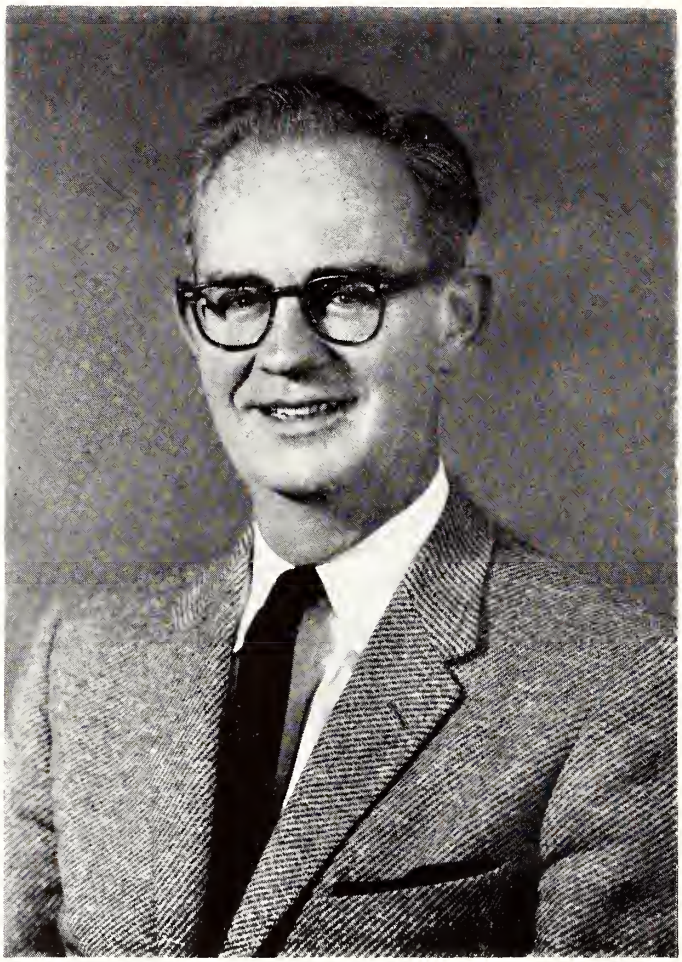
My dear Freshmen:

We appreciate your many contributions to the campus life of Potomac State College during the year 1957-58. The college is you. We hope that the record which you have written will enrich your lives.

Your return next year is being anticipated with pleasure.

KIRKLAND S. McKEE

We Honor



Mr. Leonard Withers

Mr. Leonard G. Withers, head of the Music Department, has served the college and community loyally and without stint since 1940. His role as instructor for private piano lessons, classroom lectures in theory, and director of Potomac Singers has given him a wide audience that extends throughout the northern half of West Virginia.

Mr. Withers has appeared in concerts sponsored by the Keyser Woman's Club and has delighted audiences as a member of a two-piano team. He has heeded the call to serve as choir director of Trinity Lutheran Church.

In appreciation for his countless hours of instruction, his understanding patience, and insistence on high standards of performance, the staff affectionately dedicates the 1958 CATAMOUNT to Mr. Leonard G. Withers.

Eta Upsilon Gamma was founded at Christian College, Columbia, Missouri, in 1901; it is the oldest national junior college sorority in the National College Panhellenic. The aims of the sorority are to promote scholarship, to stimulate school spirit, and to enrich and broaden friendship.

In October a rush party was held at the Upper Potomac Shrine Club. During the year the Gammas co-sponsored two dances, the Harvest Swing and the Spring Formal, with their brother fraternity, Theta Sigma Chi.

Honors bestowed upon the sorority are as follows: ROTC sponsors Mary Ann Leyland, Ann Phillips, Ann Bryan, Donalene Kelley; Queen of the Harvest Swing, Ann Phillips; Freshman Belle, Darley Broome; Apple Blossom Princess, Ann Phillips; Queen of the Military Ball, Mary Ann Leyland; May Queen, Ann Bryan.

The sorority sponsored bake sales, a rummage sale, and bake sales within the dormitory through the year. A basket of food was sent to a needy family at Thanksgiving.

The climax of the year was the annual spring banquet held in honor of the departing sophomores which is given jointly by the brother fraternity, Theta Sigma Chi; and also the spring picnic.

Theta Sigma Chi Fraternity was founded on the campus of Potomac State College in 1922. In 1947 Theta Sigma Chi was granted a national charter by the National College Panhellenic and was designated as Alpha Chapter. The fraternity promotes scholarship, character, fellowship, school spirit and cooperation.

The fraternity sponsored the annual "Miss Catamount" contest and crowned Miss Wilma Shields, of Romney, West Virginia, as "Miss Catamount XIX." The fraternity float won the best Greek-letter award. The college was presented another plaque for the flag pole by the fraternity.

Two dances, a dinner dance, and annual spring picnic are co-sponsored by the Theta Sigma Chi Fraternity and their sister sorority. The fraternity also exchanged ideas by correspondence with Beta Chapter of Theta Sigma Chi of Shepherd College.

Kappa Delta Psi originated on Potomac State campus. It was organized April 26, 1951. The motivating spirit of this sorority is its motto, "Truth, Honor, and Purity." Its objectives are to further scholarship, to stimulate school spirit, to promote high moral standards, and to develop a close feeling of friendship among its members and a loyalty to the college which is its founding place.

Miss Wilma Shields was elected Homecoming Queen and Campus Cover Girl. LaRue Frye was chosen Sophomore Belle. Five Kappas are on the cheering squad; Jean Thompson, captain, Wilma Shields, Carole Harper, Donna Ashenfelter and Elaine Smith. ROTC sponsors for the coming year include Louise Pyles and Donna Ashenfelter. For the past three years, the sorority has been presentd with the Dean's Scholastic Citation.

The Kappas exchanged gifts at a Christmas party held in the Home Economics Department. In February the group was entertained at an afternoon tea by the patronesses at the home of Mrs. Earl Hess. With their brother fraternity, Phi Kappa Omega, the sorority co-sponsored the annual Easter Ball. A joint picnic, an annual affair, was also held.

Phi Kappa Omega Fraternity with its objectives of high scholarship, sound moral character, and cooperation among fellow members, works constantly for the betterment of Potomac State College.

Active members initiated the fall term with a successful pledge party, which added several members to the fraternity. Throughout the year the fraternity continued active in intramural sports, campus elections, and social activities.

Brother David Satterfield served as president of the student body, and brother Billy Sheppard as president of the Panhellenic Council.

The fraternity proudly points to the election of two members of their sister organization, Kappa Delta Psi Sorority, to positions of honor on the campus. Miss Wilma Shields reigned as Homecoming Queen and Campus Cover Girl, and Miss LaRue Frye as Sophomore Belle.

Social functions sponsored by the fraternity included the annual spring picnic and the traditional Easter Ball.

Epsilon Chapter of Sigma Iota Chi is the oldest sorority on the campus of Potomac State College. Although it was originally founded in 1903 at the University of the South at Sewanee, Tennessee, as an honor society, it has become the largest social organization. This sorority has become the largest junior college sorority in the United States. Carrying on the spirit and ideals of the first chapter, the group stresses the importance of scholastic achievement and fellowship.

Using the theme of "The Rush Hour, Broadcasting Station EIX," Sigmas welcomed the freshmen women with a party at the home of Mrs. Thad Huffman. Of the nineteen pledges received in October, eleven were initiated in March.

Miss Paula Kalbaugh represented the sorority as one of the ROTC sponsors. One of our members, Miss Nora Egan, won first place in the annual Circle K talent show. She gave a monologue depicting an Italian chef making a "beeg" pot of spaghetti. Miss Rebecca Green was crowned Queen of Winter at the Jingle Bell Hop. At the annual Sigma Sweetheart Ball in February, Miss Helen Hutter was selected Sigma Sweetheart.

Sigma Sorority joined with the brother fraternity, Phi Sigma Nu, for parties during the year. Carrying out the program of "Bringing Joy to Others," Sigmas distributed baskets of food to the needy at Christmas.

Phi Sigma Nu has as its objectives scholastic achievement, college spirit, high moral standing, and an interest in all college activities. A leader in all campus activities, the fraternity is proud that its members hold many important offices on the campus.

Phi Sigma Nu has won thirteen consecutive Dean's Scholarship Awards, given to the Greek-letter organization making the highest total scholastic average.

Miss Rebecca Green and Mr. Byron Athey were crowned Queen and King of Winter at the eighteenth annual Jingle Bell Hop sponsored by the Phi Sigma Nu. The Phi Sigma Nu also assisted the Sigma Iota Chi at the Sweetheart Ball.

The bonds of friendship established here will be lasting memories in the years to come.

Panhellenic

The Panhellenic Council, governing body of the Greek letter organizations on campus, is composed of three members, two sophomores and a freshman, from each fraternity and sorority. The council serves as a forum for the discussion of problems pertaining to fraternal life. Its aim is to promote good fellowship and co-operation among the fraternities and sororities on the campus, to assist in keeping up the spirit of the school, and to maintain the highest ideals of life, character, and citizenship. Panhellenic arranges the annual school program for these societies and arbitrates school campaigns and elections.

The governing organization of the student body of Potomac State College is the Student Council, whose major objectives are directing student activities and promoting school spirit.

During Freshman Week, the Council assisted in the orientation program for the incoming students; two weeks later the group helped to organize the Freshman Class, selected freshman rules, and supervised their enforcement through the Kangaroo Court. The Council supervised the selection of cheerleaders, held "thuses" and sold programs for the football games.

On October 19, the Student Council sponsored one of the most gala affairs on the campus, the annual Homecoming Ball, honoring Miss Wilma Shields as Miss Catamount XIX. In May, the Council cooperated with the Physical Education Department in the May Day Fete, which culminated in the May Queen's Ball.

Upon recommendation of the Athletic Department, the Council presented letters and sweaters to athletes. The Council sponsored a campus-wide drive in February to collect books for Korean orphans.

Sigma Phi Omega was established on the campus of Potomac State College in 1923 for the purpose of honoring scholarship, leadership, and citizenship. The society has no national affiliations, but is purely local, and over the years it has developed its own policies and traditions. Membership in Sigma Phi Omega is a coveted honor.

The organization makes a valued contribution to the college. It sponsors two convocations, one at the beginning of the school year to acquaint new students with leading campus organizations and personalities, and another at the close of the year to honor achievement of every kind. The spring initiation and the annual banquet are highlights of the school year. On the latter occasion, the society is instrumental in bringing to the campus an outstanding personality in the field of education.

Sigma Phi Omega takes its responsibilities seriously and stands ready to cooperate with the college at all times.

The Home Economics Club of Potomac State College is a member of the state and national organizations. Membership is open to all girls interested in home economics. The club offers opportunity for each member to develop socially by being hostess at various functions and participating in other club activities.

The Home Economics Club sold mums during Homecoming weekend; they shared the responsibility of a Homecoming float with the Agriculture Club. They also sold refreshments at the game.

The organization assisted with the preparation and serving of the Parents' Day meal.

Members of the club participated in the program dealing with fashion for the Piedmont and Keyser Women's Clubs.

The club sponsored an open house for all friends and families of girls and women interested in Home Economics.

Harriette Arnold represented Potomac State and West Virginia as the state's candidate for the office of national vice president of the college club section of American Home Economics Association.

The Pasquino

The PASQUINO, Potomac State student newspaper, completed its thirty-ninth year of publication, May, 1958.

Aside from campus circulation, the PASQUINO is mailed to parents of non-commuting students and to the college's alumni all over the world.

The mainstays of the staff are the journalism majors, but many volunteer workers are added because of the complexity of the undertaking. Each year the staff compiles a Student-Faculty directory.

Social highlight of the year is the annual Press Banquet, at which time an outstanding journalist addresses the group.

The PASQUINO is published fortnightly and is affiliated with the West Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association.

Potomac State Debaters

The Potomac State Debaters Club was organized in 1953 under the direction of Mr. J. Kenna Burke. It seeks to develop techniques in debating and understanding of a major problem in contemporary American life. A question for debate is selected, followed by research work and discussion. This year's problem was "Resolved: That the requirement of membership in a labor organization as a condition of employment should be legal."

The Christian Youth Fellowship was organized on the Potomac State campus in 1949. This organization strives "to bring Christian youth of Potomac State College into closer contact with the church and to deepen their devotional life through recreation and fellowship." Constructive programs are presented by the various members at the meetings which are held each Sunday evening.

The Christian Youth Fellowship co-sponsored Religious Emphasis Week and sponsored the Pre-Easter Communion and Pre-Easter worship services for Protestant students. It also participated in several campus social events.

Newman Club

The Newman Club is a Catholic organization of Catholic culture and fellowship that guides the spiritual, intellectual, and social interests of the Catholic students at Potomac State College, assisting them whenever possible, and welding them into a common union.

The Newman Club received Holy Communion in a body during the Christmas and Easter sessions. All of the Catholic students on campus received Holy Communion in a body and held Communion Breakfast during Religious Emphasis Week.

Special speakers attended meetings at various times throughout the year. A few meetings were social affairs, such as square dances. These were held in St. Mary's Hall in Keyser.

The Singers of Potomac State College were organized in 1926 to give the students who were interested in singing an opportunity to enjoy group participation in the art.

From an humble beginning the Singers group has grown both in number and reputation to become the most active cultural organization on the campus. Potomac State sends this group on annual tours to represent the college at many high schools in the tri-state area. This year the Singers visited the following high schools: Bruce, Valley, Piedmont, Petersburg, Moorefield, Romney, Kingwood, Southern Garrett, and Keyser.

The highlight of the winter season was the presentation of "The Babe of Bethlehem," a cantata by Matthews, which was sung before the Keyser Rotary Club and the college as the Christmas convocation. The cantata featured the Mixed Chorus, the Men's and Women's Choruses, and soloists: Patricia Nuzum, Mrs. Frances Hartman, Nils Johannesen, John Brown, Carolyn Smith, and Arbutus Kinney.

Preceeding the spring tour, the Singers added special music to the annual "Religious Emphasis Week" program.

Climaxing the year with their last performance for the graduating members, the Singers provided the music for the Commencement convocation.

The Potomac Players completed their thirty-ninth year of dramatic activity this year. The Players, oldest cultural group on the campus, being formed in 1919, provides students with training in the field of dramatics. Members are able to display their talents in many phases of play-producing such as acting, make-up, set design, and stage managing.

This year the Players produced a three-act comedy, "The White Sheep of the Family," with the following cast: Lee Courtney, R. Warren Eisenhower, Margaret Frey, LaRue Frye, Margaret Galuppo, Susan Karickhoff, Rocco Palumbo, James Ogborne, and Edward Williams.

Delta Psi Omega is the largest honor society in dramatics for junior colleges with more than two hundred active chapters scattered throughout the United States. Potomac State College is Cast Number 110 of this group.

Students are selected for membership on a point basis. One hundred points must be accumulated by work in some phase of dramatics before the individual may be considered for membership. Election to the society even then is not automatic. Candidates must satisfy national and local requirements for election.

Delta Psi Omega does not exist as a replacement for dramatic clubs, but is rather a fraternity to give recognition to members of such organizations who excel in this field.

The Circle K Club of Potomac State College was officially organized in 1952 when it was presented with International Charter No. 33. This club was formed with the idea and purpose of serving the college campus and the community of Keyser.

The Circle K Club is sponsored by the local Kiwanis Club, and is composed of college men of high character and scholastic standing, who feel that to serve others is worthwhile and is a desirable trait of one's personality.

The ideals of Circle K are to develop, by precept and example, a more intelligent, aggressive, and serviceable citizenship, to promote cordial fellowship and high scholarship, to provide educational opportunities in college, to bind with stronger ties the experience in living and working together, to serve the community and the college, and to give primacy to the human and spiritual rather than the material values of life.

Some of the major projects completed this year were sponsoring the annual homecoming parade, presentation of an annual talent show, operation of the second-hand book store, assisting with Parents' Day, participation in Kiwanis Ham, Bacon, and Egg show, assisting with the County Cancer Drive, and serving as guides for campus activities.

Harold Wimer was elected International Trustee at the International Circle K Convention in Denver, Colorado.

The Agriculture Club officially joined the family of campus organizations in 1954.

The purposes of the organization are to provide opportunities for club members to become acquainted with leaders in the field of agriculture, to develop leadership, cooperation, and citizenship; and to promote recreational activities for the members of the organization.

The club's activities during the year included a float sponsored jointly with the Home Economics Club in the Homecoming Parade; a concession stand operated at the Parents' Day Program; guest speakers to provide members with information in the different fields of agriculture; selection of the outstanding agriculture student; attendance to Penn State University; sponsorship of the Regional FFA Parliamentary Procedure, Creed, and Public Speaking contests; tour of Barton's Diary near Cumberland, Maryland; and visitation to the FFA Ham, Bacon, and Egg Show in Keyser.

W. A. A.

The Women's Athletic Association has as its motto "A sport for every woman and every woman in a sport." It was organized to popularize women's athletics and to provide leisure time activities.

The organization aims to develop standards of leadership and sportsmanship and to promote those activities which may be adapted to the leisure time of later school life. Intramural games are bowling, volleyball, badminton, basketball, and pingpong, among other activities that are offered.

The club is open to all girls on campus. A total of two hundred fifty points entitles a member to an emblem. These points are acquired by participation in tournaments, attending meetings, and in various other ways.

W. A. A. made corsages for the Mothers on Parents' Day. This proved extremely successful.

Women's Residence Association

The Women's Residence Association, established December 7, 1944, is comprised of all women living in residence at Potomac State College, both in the dormitory and in approved off-campus houses. The purposes of the organization are to establish and administer student government, to sponsor an adequate social program, and to develop necessary social graces among resident women students.

A House Council, comprised of officers of the association, have separate meetings to discuss specific problems and projects. Throughout the year the association plans and decorates for the annual Homecoming and Christmas festivities, and sponsors the Christmas party.

R. O. T. C. Drill Team

Roth Military Honorary Society sponsors the Drill Team, a volunteer organization whose members are called upon to drill at times other than normal class hours. The first call for recruits was issued October 30, 1957. The purpose of the Drill Team is to develop a high degree of proficiency in all normal and routine movements of the manual of arms and foot movements common to the average cadet, plus the mastery of the intricate, complicated and unusual handling of the rifle with accompanying footwork.

Sgt. Francis Birnley is ROTC faculty advisor and drillmaster.

On November 9, 1957, the cadets presented a ceremonial drill at half-time of Parents' Day football game. On November 11, 1957, the organization provided a firing squad of ten men under the command of Cadet Captain Byron Athey, as part of the Annual Veterans Day Program, which included David Black, Berlin Collett, Paul Cook, James Giffin, William Mankins, Jon Painter, John Riley, and William Sheppard. On March 22, 1958, the group furnished a Queen's Honor Guard for the Queen of the Annual Military Ball, presenting a ceremonial drill with accompanying rifle movements, the high point of the demonstration being the execution of the "Queen Anne Salute." On April 29, 1958, the Drill Team performed as a special feature at the annual formal inspection of the ROTC unit.

Rifle Team

SGT. CECIL ROY
Coach

The Potomac State Catamount Rifle Team is one of four sports organizations on the campus. The rifle team provides an opportunity for students of the ROTC to broaden and enrich their college experience.

Stimulation of active competition and trips away from the campus combined to make this past season highly successful. The schedule consisted of matches between Potomac State College and Loyola College, Davis and Elkins College, Western Maryland College, Gettysburg College, Massanutten Military Academy, and Morgan State College.
